SENIOR CLERK

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This class involves responsibility for supervising a small clerical staff engaged in routine clerical activity and/or performing the more difficult and responsible clerical assignments involving moderately complex methods and procedures. Incumbents in this class perform a wide variety of clerical functions, which require the use of independent judgment in the application and explanation of specific laws, departmental rules, procedures and policies. Work assignments generally develop from the receipt of papers, payments, claims, documents or other materials presented to a unit or office which require substantial knowledge of the subject matter and not merely procedural knowledge, or from specific assignments by a superior. Work may include contact with the public under conditions requiring the explanation of office policies, procedures or applicable regulations. General supervision is provided from a higher level official, although direct supervision may apply in cases of unusual, difficult or substantial matters or policy problems. Direct supervision may be a responsibility of the incumbent depending upon specific assignments.
